DISCUSSION TOPICS

- Would Harry have succeeded at the tasks he faced in The Goblet of Fire without outside assistance? If not, what does this reveal about Harry's greatest strength?

- During the Quidditch World Cup mask-wearing death eaters appear and frighten their surroundings. Compare their appearance to other times when groups of people wore hoods and masks to cover their identities. What does the masking of a face tell us about the nature of evil?

- In The Goblet of Fire, we learn that when Voldemort killed Harry's parents, Harry survived the attack due to his mother's loving sacrifice. As a result of surviving the attack Harry is labeled a great wizard, but has Harry truly earned that title? To what extent would you say that Harry is not so much "great" as lucky?

ESSAY WRITING

At the end of The Goblet of Fire headmaster Albus Dumbledore begins to rally those who would fight against Lord Voldemort, telling the students at Hogwarts to remember Cedric: "Remember, if the time should come when you have to make a choice between what is right and what is easy...". With that statement Dumbledore appears to be saying that what is right and what is easy are not the same. Do you agree with him? Think of examples from the history of mankind and from your own life.
